NOTICE OF APPELLATE RIGHTS

If you receive an adverse decision in the Circuit Court, you have the right to appeal the decision by filing an appeal in the New Hampshire Supreme Court. This is an appeal only on questions of law. In other words, the Supreme Court will not re-determine questions of fact already decided by the Circuit Court. You must file your appeal with the Supreme Court within thirty (30) days of the date on the Circuit Court's written notice of the decision. In landlord/tenant cases, you must notify the Circuit Court within seven (7) days of the Notice of Judgment date of your intent to file an appeal in the Supreme Court. In certain limited circumstances you may have to file an appeal first in the Superior Court. It is important that you look up the specific appeal rights for your specific case type to determine where to file your appeal and how quickly you must act. You may wish to contact an attorney to help you with this.
